⁹ but excluding -

(i) a gift to the person by a relative or civil partner or friend of the person or of his or her spouse or civil partner, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, for purely personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of the gift by the person could have materially influenced him or her in the performance of his or her functions as Attorney General; and

(ii) a gift given to the person, or gifts given to the person by the same person, during the period comprehended by the statement, as respects which the value, or the aggregate value, of the property the subject of the gift or gifts did not exceed €650 at any time during the period comprehended by the statement.

¹⁰ other than property supplied or lent, or a service supplied to a person by a relative or civil partner or friend of the person, or of his or her spouse or civil partner, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, where such supply or loan was in the nature of a gift to the person and for personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of the property or loan or the service by the person could have materially influenced him or her in the performance of his or her functions as Attorney General.

¹¹ insofar as services in (ii) and (iii) relate to legal or medical services (including psychiatric or psychological services), it is only necessary to state that such services were supplied to you or to a person (who need not be identified) in respect of whom you are required to make a statement.

¹² In any case where a function falls to be performed and the holder of the office of Attorney General has actual knowledge that he or she, or a connected person within the meaning of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995 and section 97 of the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010, has a material interest in a matter to which the function relates, he or she shall prepare and furnish to the Taoiseach and the Standards in Public Office Commission a statement in writing of those facts and of the nature of the interest.

Additional information

Additional information on the requirements of the Ethics Acts and further relevant definitions are set out in the Standards in Public Office Commission's guidelines for public servants on compliance with the provisions of the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001. In addition to the guidelines, public servants may seek further information or advice from the Standards in Public Office Commission (tel: 01 639 5666; e-mail: sipo@sipo.gov.ie) concerning any provision of the legislation or the application of any such provision in any particular case.

Statements by Attorney General.

16.—(1) A person who holds or held the office of Attorney General—

(a) shall, subject to section 20 (3), in each year during any part of which he holds or held that office prepare and furnish to the Taoiseach and the Commission a statement in writing of—

(i) the interests of the person, and

(ii) the interests of which he or she has actual knowledge of his or her spouse or civil partner or a child of the person or of his or her spouse, during the appropriate period specified in section 20 (1) which could materially influence the person in or in relation to the performance of the functions of that office by reason of the fact that such performance could so affect those interests as to confer on or withhold from the person or the spouse or civil partner or child a substantial benefit, and

(b) in any case where such a function falls to be performed and he or she has actual knowledge that he or she or a connected person has a material interest in a matter to which the function relates shall, before or as soon as may be after such performance, prepare and furnish to the Taoiseach and the Commission a statement in writing of those facts and of the nature of the interest.

(2)(a) Section 20 shall apply to a statement under subsection (1)(a) with the modifications that the references in that section to section 19(3)(a)(i) shall be construed as references to subsection (1)(a), the references to the special advisership shall be construed as references to the office of Attorney General and with any other necessary adaptations.

(b) Subsection (2) of section 29 shall apply to the interests specified in subsection (1) (a) and to a person who holds the office of Attorney General as if the references in that subsection to sections 17 (1) (a), 18 (2) (a) and 19 (3) (a) (i) included references to subsection (1) (a) and with any other necessary adaptations.

(3) References in this section to the performance of a function of the office of Attorney General are references to the performance of the function by the holder of that office personally or by another person in pursuance of a direction given to the person, in relation to the particular matter concerned, by such holder personally or a person acting on behalf of and with the personal knowledge of such holder.

(4) Where a person who holds the office of Attorney General is a member—

(a) paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall not apply to the person as respects the interests, during the period of the person's membership, of the persons specified in that paragraph, and

(b) paragraph (b) of that subsection shall not apply to the person during the period of the person's membership.
