Circular Letter 06/2011 to Personnel Officers: Annual Leave and Privilege Days

1. I am directed by the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform to say that the following arrangements will apply to the treatment of Privilege Days and to the allocation of annual leave for civil servants.
2. The two Privilege Days which staff have received on an annual basis will now cease to apply in the civil service and are being formally withdrawn accordingly. Under revised arrangements all civil service grades will have their annual leave allowance increased by two days and this increase will take effect from the annual leave year 2011/2012.
3. The management of annual leave is a matter for which individual Departments/Offices are responsible having regard to the exigencies of the work as well as the requirements in the Organisation of Working Time Act 1997.
4. Departments/Offices should apply a flexible approach to the opening and closing of Departmental buildings at holiday periods or such other periods as may be required, with building closures determined by management in respect of each building or functional area having regard to business needs. This will include, where management deem it appropriate and in accordance with section 20 of the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997, mandating office closure days for which annual leave must be taken by staff e.g. in the Christmas period or other appropriate times in the annual work cycle.

Avoiding the Carryover of Annual Leave

5. Where possible annual leave should be taken in the year in which it is accrued. The carryover of annual leave should be avoided. The carryover of annual leave should be closely monitored by Department and Offices to ensure that it is being used appropriately and that large amounts of annual leave are not being accumulated by staff. There are strict limits to the carryover of annual leave in the Organisation of Working Time Act and circular 27 of 2003.
6. The revised annual leave allowances are set out in appendices 1 and 2 hereunder. These appendices supersede the existing appendices in Circular 27 of 2003.

Work-sharers

7. As provided for in section 19 of the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997 and paragraphs 7 and 8 of Circular 27 of 2003, work-sharing staff will have their annual leave allowance increased by the appropriate pro-rata amount of the additional two extra annual leave days in lieu of the Privilege Days.
8. The current annual leave Circular 27 of 2003 will be updated and re-issued in due course.
